(b) whether Government are also aware that Tamil Nadu Government has to incur heavy expenditure or police force in guiding the coastal line to prevent intrusion of undeniable foreigners and terrorists; and

(c) if so, whether Government would provide special assistance to Tamil Nadu treating it as a border State?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) Government is aware of the vulnerability of the Tamil Nadu coast to illegal cross border activities.

(b) and (c) The Governments of the coastal States including Tamil Nadu and the Union Territory Administrations were advised to prepare perspective plan for coastal security for which certain indicative parameters were identified and circulated to them. Government would provide such assistance as feasible for implementation of the plan.
